

Contents

Introduction	7
1. Race and research: Re-examining the space and place of race in South African practical theological research Nadine Bowers Du Toit	13
2. Theologia practica significans: Reflections of an African Profile Johan Cilliers	29
3. Reflecting on the empirical aspect of Practical Theology Anita Cloete	47
4. Youth-led research: From object to subject in the research process Anita Cloete	63
5. Writing the self in(to) Practical Theological research Dawid Mouton	79
6. Remembering a South African missiological methodology through the heritage of Hannes Adonis Reggie Nel	99
7. Revisioning congregational life: Reflections on researching congregations in South Africa Ian Nell	117

8. Storytelling as an indigenous research methodology: Re-framing pastoral care from “psychological care” to “intergenerational care” Nobuntu Penxa-Matholeni	141
9. Dialogical Intergenerational Pastoral Process: A transdisciplinary research approach Christo Thesnaar	167
10. Theology and church: Exploring the lifegiving relation between theological research, design, training and ministry Nioma Venter and Pieter van der Walt	191
11. Researching rituals and liturgy in Africa: Conducting research as liminal trinipraxis Cas Wepener and Marcel Barnard	209
12. Integration of African values and spirituality in ministerial and missional leadership formation in Africa: An ethnographic approach Peter White	227
Endnotes	245
A word about the Stellenbosch Theological Reflection book series	251