

APPLYING TO PUBLISH A SUPPLEMENTARY ISSUE IN ACTA THEOLOGICA

Do you have a research project or conference papers you want to publish? Consider applying for a special issue in Acta Theologica, an accredited academic journal, listed in Web of Science and Scopus.

Persons interested in applying to publish in a Supplementary issue of Acta Theologica, can do so no more than two years in advance in June and November. Themes within the scope of AT that will be considered, include the following:

- Rootedness in the African continent
- Global public sphere of theological research
- Innovative theological knowledge
- Interdisciplinary theological knowledge
- Contextual theological knowledge

A project proposal should be submitted to the executive editor. The proposal should contain the following:

- The Specific focus and research problem of the project
- An indication of the new knowledge generated with this project
- The potential impact of the publication
- A description of the research paradigm
- A short conceptualisation of the structure of the argument
- Authors who might participate

Manuscripts should be prepared according to the author's guidelines and language edited. Length: Between 60 000 and 100 000 words.

The normal reviewing process and page fees will apply.

Submission date is at least seven months before the intended publication date.

APPLICATIONS FOR THE NOVEMBER 2027 SPECIAL EDITION CLOSES 10 OCTOBER 2025.

SEND APPLICATION TO hoffmanl@ufs.ac.za

